CREEK RIDGE TRAIL – 1.2 km

This walking path leads you to a trestle bridge overlooking a small waterfall and a magnificent rock wall, then follows the shore of a beaver pond and eventually takes you up to Granite Peak Lookout.

* Note that two short sections of this trail are shared with Big Pines Trail

Begins at: Trailhead A
Option: Join Big Pines Trail at intersection C.
Connects to: Stone Cairn Trail at Trailhead E.

BIG PINES TRAIL – 2.8 km

This multi-use trail takes you through forests of oak, hemlock and pine. Located at the far end of the trail is the 420-foot Otter Pond Bridge that crosses two beaver ponds.

Begins at: Trailhead B
Options: Two turn-around loops are built into the trail; also connects to Twin Ponds Trail.

TWIN PONDS TRAIL – 2.2 km

This rugged and beautiful section of the trail system rewards your efforts with spectacular views from high rock peaks overlooking chains of beaver ponds. Also located along this trail is The Grotto, a hidden area with numerous waterfalls tumbling over broken rocks.

Begins at: Trailhead H

STONE CAIRN TRAIL – 1.2 km

Follows the high open rock ridges that are found in the Muskoka region and includes incredible scenic views of the surrounding countryside. Interestingly, a rock cairn was built here in 1967 by the Girl Guides of Canada.

* Actual trail markers are yellow

Begins at: Trailhead E
Option: Connects to Big Pines Trail via Farm Lane.

FARM LANE TRAIL – 400 metres

This short and scenic trail passes by a beaver pond and an old homestead.

* Actual trail markers are yellow

Begins at: Trailhead G
Options: Follow the Big Pine Trail back to the resort (1.4km) or continue to the Otter Pond Bridge (1.4km).

SETTLER'S CREEK TRAIL – 600 metres

Follow the stream bank of this delightful waterway as you take the "short-cut" between Farm Lane and Creek Ridge Trails.

TRAIL ACCESS POINTS

Trailhead A (Creek Ridge Trail): Opposite the resort's exit gate.
Trailhead B (Big Pines Trail): Beside Taboo's golf course parking lot.
Trailhead E (Stone Cairn Trail): On Muskoka Beach Road, opposite the lane for the Greens department.
Intersection H (Twin Ponds Trail): Trailhead is a clearly marked intersection at Otter Pond Bridge.

DISTANCES

Each trail has markers placed every 100 metres that show the initials of the trail as well as the distance from that trail's starting point.
Eg. BPT 2000m = Big Pines Trail, 2000 metres from the trailhead.
